

Summer Student Opportunities!!

Humboldt and District Museum and Gallery

The Humboldt Museum is accepting applications from responsible and energetic students for full-time positions this summer.

The Public Engagement Assistant is a full-time (40 hours/week) position from May 8 until August 25, 2018. The wage rate is $14.34 per hour. These positions involve developing art and heritage programs for school children and the general public, archaeological work, new media including our Youtube channel, cataloguing artifacts for the museum collection, giving tours at the museum, gallery, Water Tower and Original Humboldt site. Students must possess excellent written and verbal communication skills and have extensive experience working with the public. Computer experience should include familiarity with database software, digital cameras and video equipment.

These positions are contingent upon funding from the Young Canada Works program and all potential students are encouraged to check their eligibility for the program on the Young Canada Works website before applying.

Resumes with references must be received by Saturday, March 17, 2018.
