

Saskatchewan Centennial Mural Scavenger Hunt!

Twenty years ago, artist Richard Widdifield painted a gorgeous tribute to the history of Saskatchewan to commemorate the Centennial of our province, and that mural's permanent home is here in Humboldt.

You can stare at this painting for hours and still see something you have never noticed before.

Fill in your name and contact info to enter our next prize draw!

Name: _____
Phone: _____
Email: _____

Study the mural to find the answers!

Which members of the Royal Family visited Melville in 1939?

---

What year was John Diefenbaker born?

---

What is the 4th track on Joni Mitchell's Ladies of the Canyon album?

---

What United Kingdom city did the S.S. Ascania sail from?

---

What year did the Province of Saskatchewan declare the official year of Indigenous and Métis women?

---

What year was the Electrical Licensing Act passed by the Saskatchewan Power Corporation?

---

Who visited Moosomin on Thursday, March 19 (the year is not specified!)?

---

What month and year was Vol. 1, No. 1 of The Sheaf published?

---

On what date in 1905 was the province of Saskatchewan officially inaugurated?

---

What does kitaskînow mean in English?

---