

Free Exploring CQ Concert for Schools!

Humboldt Uniplex, Jubilee Hall

Friday, October 4
1:30pm to 2:30pm

Themes include
diversity,
multiculturalism, and friendship.

Musician Wilbur Sargunaraj has made friends all over the world and he is coming to Humboldt to teach us what he has learnt!

This high-energy and engaging concert will introduce young people to concept of “Cultural Intelligence” which is all about making friends with people who are different from you!

Sing, dance, and learn about the amazing diversity of humanity at this free concert for educators.

Best for kindergarten to grade 8.
To reserve a spot for your class, call 306.682.5226 or email info@humboldtmuseum.ca.
Transportation required.

CULTURE DAYS

FUNDED BY Humboldt

FUNDED BY SASK LOTTERIES

In partnership with Sask Culture

AH!
Arts Humboldt